Free Evaluation: How does your Existing Factoring Agreement Look?

If you have been factoring your receivables for a while now, you understand what a great service this can be for your company. There is no better way to get the cash flow you need, when you need it than with factoring.

But there are dozens of unscrupulous factoring firms out there. The industry is full of bait and switch players, and companies that are more in it for themselves than for you. We know, we've seen them.

Do they offer carrier payments? Do they offer supplier assurance letters? Is the factoring company paying you 90 percent of the value of the invoice? Are you receiving cash/funding within 24 hours? There are so many questions to consider.

Items We Review in Your Free, Customized Evaluation:

- Rates & Fees
- Accounting Services
- Supplier & AP Management
- Overadvances, credit expertise and more

Some of the other questions we answer in the free evaluation:

- Do they provide full disclosure on all rates and fees?
- Do they have high service charges?
- Are there any hidden, undisclosed fees?
- Is there fine print on the contract that was not disclosed to you verbally?
- Do they offer informal financial/business guidance?
- Do they offer tax repayment assistance / monitoring?
